Keep Montgomery County Beautiful Announces Winners of Fourth Annual Growing Green Plant Sale Poster Art Contest

Montgomery County, Texas - January 5, 2013 - KMCB's fourth Growing Green Poster Art contest drew submissions - and winners - from several schools in Montgomery County. The KMCB Board of Directors and local artist Stanley Harris judged the art work and in addition to the first place winner also picked three artists for honorable mention.

MISD ALPHA Academy Student Wins First Place and Scholarship

The First Place artist, Dylan Etter, will receive a $500 scholarship to assist with the expense of his higher education. He will be presented with a framed copy of the poster bearing his artwork and his scholarship at the KMCB Annual Volunteer Awards Dinner on Saturday, February 23, 2013. Dylan will graduate from ALPHA Academy in Magnolia ISD in 2013 and plans to attend the Art Institute. His dynamic painting of the Black and Blue Salvia plant is featured on the 2013 Growing Green Plant sale poster.

1st Place by Dylan Etter

Honorable Mention artist, Victoria Martinez, a student at Magnolia West High School in Magnolia ISD, is a Junior and has been involved with art all of her life.
